

27 Lincoln Street ▪ Cromwell, Connecticut 06416 ▪ Phone: 860.613.2917 ▪ Fax: 860.613.2935

GK Soccer Training & Keeperstop Forge Partnership

This summer, GK Soccer Training and Keeperstop are presenting a unique opportunity for goalkeepers of all ages to train with Division 1 goalkeeper coaches. George Kostelis (Yale University) and Christian Benjamin (Central Connecticut State University) will direct and oversee each program offered and be assisted by former and current Division 1 goalkeepers.

Two weeks of goalkeeping will be offered this summer – please mark your calendars!

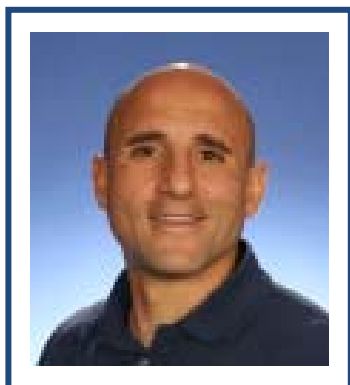

Goalkeeper Clinic Dates

July 27 – 31, 2009 - Lyman Hall High School, Wallingford, CT
August 10 – 14, 2009 - King Phillip Middle School, West Hartford, CT

Programs Offered

Developmental GK Training: 8 to 11 years old - beginner goalkeepers
Intermediate GK Training: 12 - 14 year olds - intermediate goalkeepers
Advanced and High School Training: 14 – 18 years old

The Directors

George Kostelis

Christian Benjamin

George Kostelis: Yale University Men's Assistant and Goalkeeper Coach. Founder and director of GK Soccer Training, www.gksoccertraining.com. Recipient of United States Soccer Federation (USSF) "A" License and National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Premier Diploma. National Soccer Coaches Association of America Goalkeeper Education Staff Instructor. Current Region 1 Staff Coach.

Christian Benjamin: Central Connecticut State University Men's Assistant and Goalkeeper Coach. 2007 NCAA Sweet 16 finalists. CT ODP Goalkeeper Coach and Staff Coach 2007 and 2008. Creator of the goalkeeper equipment and education resource, www.keeperstop.com. Featured goalkeeper clinician throughout New England and Tri - State area. Licenses: USSF C and NSCAA National Goalkeeper Certification.

For More Detailed Information – please visit www.gksoccertraining.com or www.keeperstop.com
Online Registration Available at www.keeperstop.com
Questions – please call 860-613-2917 or 860-904-9939